Foreword

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a fast developing area with frequent new developments. During the Covid-19 pandemic and thereafter, regular notifications have been issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, advising corporates on what expenditures are eligible CSR spend. By doing so, the Government has tried to build a private-public partnership so as to streamline the CSR funds into tackling the pandemic and to bring the society out from the aftereffects of the pandemic and to bring the economy in the growth trajectory. One of the latest such announcements advised that CSR funds could be utilized for creation of awareness and for public outreach on Covid-19 vaccination programme.

Further, the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Amendment Rules, 2021 has been issued which have tried to bring more monitoring and reporting aspects of the CSR Funds spend. The Amendment Policy has directed that practicing Chartered Accountant along with other professionals can certify e-Form CSR-1 as given in the Amendment Policy.

I complement the CSR Committee and its Chairman CA. Pramod Jain, Vice Chairman CA. Charanjot Singh Nanda and all committee members for their active support in timely bringing out this Handbook on Certification of Form CSR-1. I also compliment the Committee Secretariat in providing active support in the release of the same.

Handbook on Certification of Form CSR-1

Introduction

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by section 135 and sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 469 of the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013), the Central Government has issued rules to further amend the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 (“CSR Rules”). The Rules may be called the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Amendment Rules, 2021. The extract of the amended Rules is annexed as Annexure to this handbook.
2. The objective of this handbook is to provide guidance to members on the Certification of Form CSR-1, as mandated by the above amendment Rules, to be obtained by the entity who intends to undertake CSR activities.

Scope

3. What constitutes CSR activity is specified in Schedule VII to the Act and reference is also invited to the circulars issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA). This handbook provides guidance on issuance of Certification by members as per Form CSR-1 and does not deal with identification of activities that constitute CSR or the activities of the entities intended to carry out CSR activities.

CSR Compliance

4. Rule 3 of the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 provides that every company including its holding or subsidiary, and a foreign company defined under clause (42) of Section 2 of the Act, having its branch office or project office in India, which fulfils the criteria specified in sub-section (1) of Section 135 of the Act, shall comply with the provisions of Section 135 of the Act and CSR Rules.

CSR Implementation

5. As per Rule 4(1) of the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 (as amended by Companies (CSR Policy) Rules, 2021), the Board of Company shall ensure that the CSR activities are undertaken by the company itself or through third parties.
6. The third parties as defined in above sub-rule (1) are as under:-
 - A. A company established under Sec. 8 of the Act, a Registered Public Trust or a Registered Society, which are registered u/s 12A and 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961, established by the company, either singly or along-with any other company.
 - B. A company established under Sec. 8 of the Act, a Registered Trust or a Registered Society established by Central Government or State Government.
 - C. Any entity established under an Act of Parliament or a State legislature.
 - D. A company established under Section 8 of the Act, or a registered public trust or a registered society, registered under Section 12A and 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961, and having an established track record of at least three years in undertaking similar activities.
7. In cases where the Board of Company is not carrying out CSR activities itself and undertakes the same through third parties as prescribed in Rule 4(1) above, till now there was no platform for identification and registration of such entities. In such cases, presently a company has to follow a thorough and stringent selection process so as to ensure that the organizational goals towards CSR are achieved in the most transparent, effective and efficient manner. Further, the companies interested in engaging third parties for implementation of CSR activities had to scout for the appropriate entities on its own. The database of registered implementation agencies would become a handy tool for the companies looking for implementation entities.

The amended Rule 4(2)(a) of the Companies (Corporate Social Responsibility Policy) Rules, 2014 makes it mandatory for every such entity (as mentioned in clauses A to D above) and who intends to undertake any CSR activity, to register itself with the Central Government. The entity has to file Form CSR-1 electronically with the Registrar. This provision is made applicable with effect from the 01st day of April 2021. The format of Form CSR-1 is provided as annexure to this handbook.

8. The proviso to Rule 4(2)(a) provides that the provisions of this sub-rule shall not affect the CSR projects or programmes approved prior to the 01st day of April 2021.
9. Rule 4(2)(b) mandates that Form CSR-1 shall be signed and submitted electronically by the entity on the MCA portal and shall be verified digitally by a Chartered Accountant in practice or a Company Secretary in practice or a Cost Accountant in practice.
10. As per Rule 4(2)(c) on the submission of the Form CSR-1 on the portal, a unique CSR Registration Number shall be generated by the system automatically.

Filing and verification of Form CSR-1

11. The Form CSR-1 is termed as Form for “Registration of Entities for undertaking CSR Activities”. The Form mainly consists of two parts, first part is relating to the information about the entity who intends to undertake CSR activities.
